

Donor Appreciation

We gratefully acknowledge the support of private contributors to the National Academy of Medicine. The collective, private philanthropy of our members and friends helps to enhance the NAM's mission to lead, inspire innovation, and impact the health of all people.

2018 Donor Recognition

In 2018, contributions from private donors helped the National Academy of Medicine provide expert advice to the nation, inspire bold ideas around the globe, and build leadership capacity for the future of health and health care. We are deeply grateful for the generous support. Every gift helps the NAM promote its core mission and respond to urgent priorities. Highlights from the year include:

- $10.8 million in new commitments
- $4.9 million for the Healthy Longevity Global Grand Challenge
- $1.5 million for the Action Collaborative on Countering the U.S. Opioid Epidemic
- 596 NAM members and friends contributed $535,120 to the Annual Fund
- 29% of NAM members gave to the NAM or the Committee on Human Rights
- New Einstein Society Members (cumulative giving of $100,000 or more)
  - David Baltimore
  - Barry and Bobbi Coller
  - Jane Henney and Robert Graham.
- New NAM Society Members (cumulative giving of $20,000)
  - Mary and Dennis Bier
  - Nathaniel E. David
  - Norman and Deann Gant
  - Sid Gilman and Carol Barbour
  - James S. and Judith M. Marks
  - Paul A. Offit
  - Palmer and Susan Taylor
  - David Walt and Michele May
  - Myron and Linda Weisfeldt
  - Keith R. Yamamoto

Philanthropic gifts and grants make it possible for the NAM to fulfill its mission. We greatly appreciate all of the support received from our many members and friends.

Lifetime Giving

Einstein Society

In recognition of members and friends who have made lifetime contributions of $100,000 or more to the National Academy of Sciences, the National Academy of Engineering, or the National Academy of Medicine. We acknowledge contributions made as personal gifts or as gifts facilitated by the donor through a donor-advised fund, matching gift program, or family foundation. Names in bold are NAM members.

Annual Giving Societies

The National Academy of Medicine gratefully acknowledges the following members and friends who made charitable contributions during 2018 to support the NAM, and those NAM members who supported the Committee on Human Rights, a joint committee of the three academies. The collective, private philanthropy of these individuals enables the NAM to fulfill its mission to build a healthier future. We acknowledge contributions made as personal gifts or as gifts facilitated by the donor through a donor advised fund, matching gift program, or family foundation.
