

Value Incentives & Systems Health Action Collaborative

Summer 2021 Meeting and Webinar

❖
July 7, 2021
(1:00 PM – 4:15 PM ET)

Webinar Focus: Exploring the translation of strategic insights from initiatives of the National Academy of Medicine to actionable approaches to accelerate movement toward integrated payment strategies that move away from fee-for-service and toward incentives that best align resources for value and health.

Key Objectives:

1. Leverage key lessons for accelerated transformation: Review the landscape of challenges and opportunities for health system transformation that best aligns resources for health.
2. Identify pathways to action: Discuss practical strategies and stewardship efforts that can address systemic and organizational barriers and ensure that resources are aligned in the most efficient and effective manner to yield the best health outcomes and lower costs.

Anticipated Outcomes: Feedback on approaches and strategies for accelerating the move toward value and population health, insight on actionable steps forward, and opportunities for continued collaborative action and stewardship.

Zoom Webinar

Please register here to ensure we have your information for follow-on communications and to share the slides after the meeting. You will receive an email with instructions on how to join.

AGENDA

1:00 pm ET	Welcome, Introductions & Meeting Overview Welcome from the National Academy of Medicine Michael McGinnis , National Academy of Medicine Opening remarks and meeting overview by Collaborative Co-Chairs James Madara , American Medical Association Susan Devore , Premier, Inc.
1:15 pm ET	Keynote Presentation: Moving Towards Value Remarks on the necessity and urgency for person-centered value to transform American health, health care, and biomedical science. Moderator: James Madara , American Medical Association Speaker: Jonathan Blum , Centers for Medicare and Medicaid Services
1:45 pm ET	The Context: Themes from COVID-19 Sectoral Impact Assessments Presentations and panel discussions on findings from the Health Payers, Care Systems, and Clinicians & Professional Societies COVID-19 Sector Impact Assessments, focusing on observations and opportunities to accelerate value and population health. Moderator: Michael McGinnis , National Academy of Medicine

Panelists: Suzanne Miyamoto, American Academy of Nursing
Bruce Siegel, America's Essential Hospitals
Rahul Rajkumar, Optum Care Solutions

2:30 pm ET	The Roadmap: Themes from Ongoing Leadership Consortium Initiatives
-------------------	---

Presentations and facilitated discussion on the strategy, synergy, and opportunities for innovative and transformative health financing approaches identified in the Leadership Consortium Health Financing Workshop Series and the Catalyzing Innovative Health System Transformation Discussion Series in support of the Center for Medicare & Medicaid Innovation.

Moderator: Michael McGinnis, National Academy of Medicine

Panelists: Amol Navathe, University of Pennsylvania

Cindy Mann, Manatt Health

Hoangmai Pham, Institute for Exceptional Care

3:00 pm ET	The Journey Forward: Discussion on Practical Action
-------------------	--

Discussion on the operationalization of identified strategies for accelerating the movement away from fee-for-service health financing and needs for additional insight and collaborative stewardship.

Moderator: James Madara, American Medical Association

Panelists: David Pate, St. Luke's Health System (retired)

Judy Zerzan-Thul, Washington State Health Authority

Eric Fennel, Aetna, a CVS Health Company

4:10 pm ET	Send-off and Closing Remarks
-------------------	-------------------------------------

Concluding observations, highlighted action items, and final thanks to all invited speakers and participants.

James Madara, American Medical Association

Michael McGinnis, National Academy of Medicine

4:15 pm ET	Adjourn
-------------------	----------------