Joint Meeting
Engaging Communities to Achieve Effective Health Data Sharing

April 13, 2022 12:00 PM – 3:30 PM ET
Zoom Webinar

Focus: Harnessing stakeholder strengths, assets, and needs to enable the sharing of data locally to bolster health, well-being, equity, and community agency.

Motivating questions:
1. Vision: What is our shared vision for community-wide data sharing? How does the sharing of local data help us achieve transformative progress in health and well-being? What are the essential elements needed to achieve this vision?
2. Barriers: What are the current technical, organizational, regulatory, and societal/cultural barriers to building community capacity and empowerment to share cross-sector data for local health needs?
3. Achieving Progress: What are the necessary conditions and elements to forging strong, multi-directional pathways to enable data sharing among community partners for better health and health care?

Outcomes anticipated: Inform a potential NAM activity aimed at exploring a community-wide data sharing framework that fosters continuous engagement, learning, and improvement for health, well-being, and equity.

Q&A

1:50 pm ET  Break

2:00 pm ET  Creating Conditions for Achieving Community-wide Data Sharing
Building on the preceding session, meeting participants will break down the unique barriers each sector encounters in accessing, assembling, and using community data for population and public health. In the course of the discussion, participants will discuss strategies and solutions to address the barriers and create the conditions for elevating and meeting the needs of diverse communities to facilitate a shared vision for local data sharing.

Opening Remarks:
Karis Grounds, Community Information Exchange San Diego (5 min)
Paul Sorenson, St. Louis Regional Data Alliance (5 min)

Moderated Discussion with all participants
Moderator: Mary Naylor, U of Pennsylvania

3:00 pm ET  Identifying Foundational Elements for Transformation
The session will begin with a brief presentation of a draft community-wide data sharing model developed by the NAM team based on research of well-known existing models. Discussion will ensue on the priority elements of the model.
