

LEARNING HEALTH SYSTEM CORE PRINCIPLES

A Trust Framework for the Common Good

ENGAGED

Informed engagement, options, and choices for people served

SAFE

Tested and updated protocols to protect from unintended harm

EFFECTIVE

Evidence-based services tailored to understanding of people's goals

EQUITABLE

Parity in opportunity to achieve desired health goals

EFFICIENT

Optimal outcomes for accessible resources

ACCESSIBLE

Effective services seamlessly available where and when most needed

ACCOUNTABLE

Clear responsibilities, measures that matter, and embedded learning

TRANSPARENT

Committed clarity and sharing on activities, results, and records

SECURE

Validated safeguards on access, sharing, and use of digital or analog tools

ADAPTIVE

Continuous learning and improvement core to organizational culture

A learning health system is one in which science, informatics, incentives, and culture are aligned for continuous improvement, innovation, and equity—with best practices and discovery seamlessly embedded in the delivery process, individuals and families active participants in all elements, and new knowledge generated as an integral by-product of the delivery experience.

NAM Leadership Consortium Charter